What Your Heart Really Longs For...

Delight thyself also in the Lord: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. (Psalm 37:4)

This verse doesn't mean you'll have every whim fulfilled—you can have an island paradise somewhere, a pink Cadillac, or a handful of diamonds. It means when you delight yourself in the Lord, what your heart has really been seeking for, it will find. What your heart really yearns for is God. Only Jesus can meet the deepest needs of your heart.

Do you know why so often we live in fear? Because we think our needs aren't going to be met. Or that things we believe are meeting our needs will be taken away from us. But 1 Timothy 6: 5-7, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. godliness But with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. We have something that can't be tampered with.

Suppose someone were to go into your house and carry out all your material possessions. Could you still praise the Lord? If your delight is in the Lord, you could!
