Who's holding you up?

Adrian Rogers - April 4, 2019

Thou hast also given me the shield of Thy salvation: and Thy right hand hath holden me up, and Thy gentleness hath made me great. Psalm 18:35

In World War II, General Jonathan Mayhew Wainwright led a gallant but vain fight that led him to become a prisoner of war. For months, the Japanese mocked him and beat him. Then one day, the news arrived that the Allied Forces had won. The prison guards thought Wainwright hadn't heard the news, so they approached him to inflict their daily habit of abuse. Though Wainwright had grown frail and weak, he stood up straight and tall and said, "From now on, I'm giving the orders around here."

The devil doesn't want you to know the Good News that Jesus has won the victory, either. But you must resist him and claim the power of God in your life.

Where do you think you'd be if Psalm 18:35 said, "I have saved myself. My hand has held me up. My gentleness has made me great"?

Praise God that your salvation is from Him! There's a wonderful; verse in Isaiah you need to memorize. It will strengthen you time and time again:

"Fear not; for I am with you: be not dismayed; for I am your God: I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness." Isaiah 41:10
