We're only on the Threshold Of Knowing Jesus Adrian Rogers - August 13, 2019

Of old hast Thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of Thy hands. Psalm 102:25

I've been preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ for more than fifty years, but I feel I'm just on the threshold of discovering Him. I want to move closer and closer to Him and learn more and more about Him.

Do you know what Paul said at the end of his ministry? That he "may know God" (see Philippians 3:10). Did he know God? Yes, but even after years of ministry, he knew so little about Him—there was so much more to know.

Let me ask you a question. Did Christopher Columbus discover America? Well, he touched on the shores of America. But even today there are thousands of unnamed lakes, forests, and more where no one has yet completely explored.

In a similar way, there is so much for us yet to discover in Christ.

You may have "touched on" Christ, but God's plan is that you know Him more and more each day.
