When You Choose Not to Decide, You Just Decided.

Adrian Rogers - September 13, 2020

“For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.”
(2 Corinthians 6:2)

When I preach, I preach to bring people to a decision. Some say, “I won’t decide today.” Oh, yes, you will—you will decide about Jesus Christ. You might say “I’m not going to decide.” You just decided.

I was witnessing to a young lady one day. I asked her if she would receive Christ. She said, “No. I can't do it today.” I said, “Don't you realize that if you don't receive Him, you're denying Him?” “Oh,” she said, “I wouldn't deny Him for anything.” “Well, Jesus said, ‘He that is not with Me is against Me.’ Either you crown Him or crucify Him, you accept or reject Him. There's no middle ground.”

Maybe you or someone you know thinks they aren’t deciding, they’re just delaying their decision. Help them see that when you choose not to decide, you just made a decision. Joshua challenged God’s people: “Choose you this day whom you will serve...but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15). What is your decision?
