When Evil Seems to Triumph

Adrian Rogers - November 6, 2020

"A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof??" (Jeremiah 5:30-31)

Israel's condition in Habakkuk's day was so deplorable, not only Habakkuk but his fellow prophet Jeremiah, known as "the weeping prophet," mourned over it.

Today we have a generation of preachers, unlike Habakkuk and Jeremiah, who tell people what they want to hear rather than what they need to hear, who teach falsely, serving for gain—and the people love it that way.

What do God's people do when biblical principles are being cast aside?

First, be assured of this: "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." (Habakkuk 2:14). One day, God is going to put His Son upon His holy hill of Zion. It has not arrived yet, but that day of reckoning is coming.

Second, remember, God is in control. Habakkuk says, "But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him." (Habakkuk 2:20). He isn't turning loose of the reins.

When Habakkuk asked, "God, where are You?", He answered, "I'm right up here in My holy temple. There's no panic. The Holy Trinity is not meeting in an emergency session. I know what I'm doing."

God has not lost control.

- Listen to the reliability of the Scriptures.
- See the reign of the Savior.
- Know there's going to be retribution for the sinner.
- And rely on God's grace.
