Are You Praying for Our Leaders?

Adrian Rogers - November 13, 2020

"Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king." (1 Peter 2:17)

I want to tell you, the answer to America's problems is not in the White House, the Pentagon, the Capitol, the statehouse, or even in the schoolhouse, but in the church house.

In our social life, we are to honor all people. In our church life, we are to love our church community. In our spiritual life, fear God. And in our political life, honor the king.

Notice it says, "Fear God." Do you know what's wrong in America today? We have a nation today where there is no fear of God. People laugh and mock at holy things. But "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding." (Proverbs 9:10).

Whether it be a king, governor, or president, my dear friend, you can honor them without venerating them or even liking them. I believe if we would criticize less and pray more, God may change some of these people. The Bible says, "The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will" (Proverbs 21:1).

Richard Halverson, the chaplain of the U. S. Senate, remarked, "We're quick to criticize political leaders but slow to pray for them." You have no right to speak against leadership in a way that's slanderous, but rather, you are to pray for leadership. Are you praying for those in authority? You really shouldn't be complaining if you are not praying.
