Where Two or Three Are Gathered

Adrian Rogers - January 10, 2021

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” (Matthew 18:20)

There is something wonderful about unity. I heard about a fellow who courted a girl by writing her a beautiful love letter every day for two years. He thought that would be a wonderful way to court her. Do you know what happened? She married the mail carrier! There is nothing like being there. There is nothing like personal contact. There is a sense in which Jesus Christ is present when His people gather. You cannot get it the same way at home.

Do you have a church home? If not, I encourage you to find one today. If church attendance isn't important, I wonder why Satan works so hard to keep folks away. If you do have a church home, make a special effort this week to meet a new friend and find a need that you can meet.
