All Good Deeds Do Not Glorify God Adrian Rogers - December 12, 2021

And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good. Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

Exodus 18:17-18

One of the ways we become physically worn out is by doing things God never intended for us to do. There's enough time in every day to gracefully do everything God wants us to do, isn't there? Moses was doing something God didn't want him to do and called it serving God. He believed he was doing it for the people. But Jethro said, "The thing that you do is not good."

Consider everything you're doing you think is so important. We need to eliminate some things, delegate other things, and then dedicate the rest. There are some things other people can do. That's how Moses learned to delegate. And then there are other things that need to be eliminated altogether. Our doing is not worthwhile if it is not honoring God and blessing others. We need God's wisdom to discern what is best each day.
