Your Life is Not Too Messy for God

Adrian Rogers - March 24, 2022

And when Esau heard the words of his father. he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father. And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

Genesis 27:34-35

Isaac's family was dysfunctional. There was favoritism. There were two brothers that hated one another. There was a dad who was caught up in what he could see and feel, a mother who was scheming, one son who was shady, and another son who was heartbroken all together in this one family. But God was at work in this family.

You may say, "My family is a mess." Good news. God is still God. I want you to see what God did. Hebrews 11:20 says, "By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come." Despite the dysfunction, God was still at work. A wise man once said, "God does not change us in order to love us; God loves us in order to change us." God loves your family. God loves you. You may say, "My family is one royal mess." Hang on! God is not done yet.
