God Uses Broken Things

Adrian Rogers - March 28, 2022

And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him. Genesis 32:25

Did you know God likes broken things? People throw broken things away, but God rarely uses anything until He first breaks it. David said in the Psalms: "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise." (Psalm 51:17). Some of us are not being used by God because we've never been broken. If God breaks you and you become broken bread and poured out wine, He will use you. God took a little boy's lunch and broke it and fed the multitudes. Mary took an alabaster box of ointment and broke it and lavished her love upon the Lord Jesus Christ. The prophet Jeremiah said: "...Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns." (Jeremiah 4:3). You'll never have the crop you ought to until you put the plow in, until the old clods are broken. Even the Lord Jesus Christ took the bread at the last supper and said: "This is My body which is broken for you." People throw broken things away. God uses broken things for His glory.
