Do You Believe In the Resurrection?

And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

1 Corinthians 15:14

I heard of a time back when haircuts were 50 cents, back in the olden days. A preacher went into the barbershop and got a haircut, and he started to pay the barber. The barber said, "No, that's all right. You're a pastor. I'm not going to charge you." The pastor said, "No, I want to pay." The barber said, "No, I will come listen to you preach, and I'll take it out in preaching." The pastor said, "I don't have any 50-cent sermons." The barber said, "That's okay. I'll come twice." I want to tell you that a sermon that does not affirm the resurrection of Jesus Christ is a profitless, worthless exercise in futility.
