You are Purposefully Broken

Adrian Rogers - May 31, 2022

And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

Romans 5:3

For several centuries, a village was known for its exquisite and fragile porcelain. Especially striking were its urns, which were as high as tables and as wide as chairs. They were admired around the globe for their strong form and delicate beauty. Legend has it that when each urn was finished, there was one final step. The artist broke it and then put it back together with gold filigree. An ordinary urn was then transformed into a priceless work of art. What seemed finished wasn't complete until it was broken.

Men throw broken things away. But God never uses anything until He first breaks it: Psalm 51:17: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise. God is trying to break your life for eternal good.

God guided Noah.
