You Need to Be Gentle

Adrian Rogers - June 21, 2022

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

Galatians 5:22-23

When you're setting a broken bone, what do you need? Gentleness. You need tender loving care. You can't restore somebody if you're harsh and overbearing. You've got to be gentle. Do you know what I've noticed about dads whose children love them most? They're gentle. All children want a strong dad, a dad they can look up to. But they also want a dad that's gentle. You can restore your children with gentleness rather than lashing out at them, screaming at them, and criticizing them. Try some tenderness with your children. If you've got backslidden children, they need tenderness. Your neighbor needs tenderness. "Restore such a one in the spirit of meekness" (Galatians 6:1, KJV). Do it gently.
