Do You Know the Bible?

Adrian Rogers - September 13, 2022

For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

Revelation 22:18

There is a war over the Word. There are those who despise it. They simply hate God's Word. They are against all that it stands for. Then there are those who don't despise it, they just deny it. They say, "I don't believe the Bible is the Word of God." And then there are those who distort it. The Bible is put in their hands, but they twist it to their own destruction. There are those who dissect it. They come to the Bible with their measuring rod, with their scalpel, with their test tube, and they treat the Bible more like a math book than a love story. They're ever learning, but they are never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. There are others who disregard it. They say it's not relevant.

But I suppose the greatest enemy of the Word of God is found in churches. These are they who say they believe the Bible. They give lip service to the fact that the Bible is the inspired, inerrant, infallible, authentic Word of God. But they don't study it. They don't know it. They don't live by it. They don't stand on it. You've got to be able to say, "I know that I know that the Bible is the Word of God." Especially in these days, when everything that is not nailed down is coming loose. The devil is pulling nails as fast as he can. But there's really nothing he will be able to disturb you on if you can stand on this Book. God has given you the Word.
