Are You a Christ-like Employee?

Adrian Rogers - September 29, 2022

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

Ephesians 6:5-7

I want to let you in on a secret. If we would begin to live on Monday like these verses describe, people would start believing what we preach on Sunday. What better place could there be to witness for Jesus Christ than on the job? Your job is your temple of devotion; it is your lamp stand for witness. The boss would say, "I don't understand these Christians. They're here on time. They work with smiles on their faces. They're very careful. They're honest. They don't steal a thing. I can trust them with the entire business. They seem to be devoted to the business as if they own it." When a man goes to hire new workers, he ought to think, "Those are the kind of people I want."

But it's not in human nature to do that. Human nature is to get by with as little as you can and get as much as you can. How are we going to live as these verses describe? You don't have what it takes. That's not your nature. By nature, you are selfish, but being Spirit-filled you can live this way.
