Are You Willing To Yield To God's Will?

Adrian Rogers - October 15, 2022

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

2 Timothy 2:15

Imagine you pull your car in behind a man pushing an old car into a gas station. All four of his tires are flat. The headlights have been broken out. The battery is gone. All the fenders are dented and flopping. It has a gas tank but there's a hole rusted in the bottom. You are sitting behind him, waiting to get gas for yourself, and you are amazed when you see his attempt to fill the tank up. If you were watching, what would you think? You'd likely wonder, What for? We say "Oh, God, show me your will." God says, "Why? Why should I show you My will? You're not prepared to do My will. You don't really mean it when you say you want to know My will."

Are you yielded to God? Don't say, "I want to know the will of God," unless there is willingness. Unless there is meekness. Unless there is openness.

All those things were there when the Apostle Paul prayed and said, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?"
