Do You Worship During the Week?

Adrian Rogers - November 16, 2022

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

John 4:24

There is something significant about our coming together to worship. The significance of coming to church is not primarily that we bring ourselves to worship but that we bring our worship to church. We have been with the Lord all week long. When we come together—all of us full of God—we don't come here to get filled up; we're already full of God. We come to celebrate together.

What are you saying about your life when you come to church to worship? You're saying, "God is important to me," and you're saying, "God's people are important to me." Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another... Hebrews 10:25. We encourage each other with the sermon, songs, and every piece of our gathering.

This worship continues through the rest of your week. Every day is a holy day, and every ground is sacred ground. But we still assemble as brothers and sisters in Christ, bringing our worship to the Lord and encouraging one another.
