Are You Serving with Enthusiasm?

Adrian Rogers - November 21, 2022

A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the Lord of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

Malachi 1:6

Did you know you are a priest? First Peter 2:9 says, "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation..." We are priests. We're to offer to the Lord sacrifices day-by-day, and we're to do it with enthusiasm, not weariness. You may ask me, "Don't you ever get tired? Don't you ever get weary?" Yes, I get weary in the work, but I've never been weary of the work. I'm as excited today about serving Jesus Christ as I have ever been in my whole life. God knows I'm telling the truth. There is so much I love about serving the Lord Jesus Christ, and every day it gets sweeter.

I want you to keep the wonder in your worship. I want you to keep the fire in your faith. Jesus would rather have you cold than lukewarm. Why? At least a person who's against Christ has enough respect for Him to be against Him. But a person who is lukewarm says, "I believe. I'm just not excited about it." We come to church sometimes and yawn in the face of God. God says, "I'm a Father. Where is my honor?" That's the reason why Jesus taught us to pray, "Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name" (Matthew 6:9). Let's remember the God we serve, as we seek to honor Him today.
