Are You Holding On to Your Old Life?

Adrian Rogers - January 18, 2023

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

GALATIANS 2:20

Imagine there's a wedding. The vows have been said. The cake has been cut. Tom and Susie are in the car. They're driving off. Susie looks over to Tom and says, "Tom, would you please take me home?" He says, "Susie, I can't take you home. We're going on our honeymoon. And then I'll take you home." Susie says, "No, Tom. I don't mean that home. I mean my home. I want you to take me back to my mother. I'm glad that you're my husband, I know that you love me, and I want you to know I'm grateful to be your wife. I'll try to come to see you on weekends, and if I get sick or need anything, I'll call you, but Tom, I'm going back to my old way of life."

That doesn't make a lot of sense, does it? Have you ever heard anybody say, "Now, Lord Jesus, I take You as my Savior. Thank You. That's done. Now I'm going back to my old way of life. Oh, yes, Lord, I'll come and see you a few times on weekends. And, Lord, if I need anything or if I get sick, I'll call on You."? That is the kind of religion that is filling Hell. People have never really made the authentic confession that Jesus Christ is Lord.
