You Can't Decide Not to Decide

Adrian Rogers - January 19, 2023

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

JOHN 14:5-6

What will you do with Jesus? This is the most important question.

It is a present question, and it is a personal question. It is not about what somebody else is going to do with Jesus. Very personally, you are going to decide what you're going to do with the Lord Jesus Christ. It's a very pertinent question; your destiny hangs on your answer. It is a pressing question; you will answer. You may say, "Nope, I'm not going to answer that question." Oh, yes, you will. You will answer the question one way or another. You say, "I'm not going to decide." You just decided not to decide and that was your decision. It is inescapable and unavoidable.

Everybody who lives will accept Him or reject Him, confess Him or deny Him, crown Him or crucify Him. Nobody can be neutral. You will do something with the Lord Jesus Christ.
