Are You Seeking God Diligently?

Adrian Rogers - April 29, 2023

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

HEBREWS 11:6

God wants us to be diligent. When I was growing up and playing with my friends, we would sometimes go ring a doorbell and run away. The person would come to the door, and there'd be nobody there. I think sometimes we do that with God. Too often, before God ever gets there to answer the prayer, we're gone.

Some of our prayers are easily offered and soon forgotten. No wonder we don't inherit the promise. Some of our prayers are wandering generalities rather than specific requests. This means many of us could not even remember what we've prayed for—whether or not God has answered our prayer.

God wants us to be diligent and devoted. The writer says we are to diligently seek Him. Often we are seeking the blessing rather than seeking the Lord, the Blessor. We are called to seek His face, who He is. We're not to only seek His hand, the things we can receive from Him. We are to hold onto God, even when the promise does not seem to come right away.
