How to Take God's Name in Victory

Adrian Rogers - May 4, 2023

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

EXODUS 20:7

Sometimes we're such hypocrites. We sing, "My Jesus, I love Thee. I know Thou art mine. For Thee all the follies of sin I resign." Do you sing that and still keep sin in your heart? We sing, "Take my silver and my gold, not a mite would I withhold." And yet we hold onto our possessions with all of our might. We sing, "Faith of our fathers, holy faith, we will be true to Thee till death," and think nothing of skipping church if a good excuse comes up. We sing, "All to Jesus I surrender. All to Him I freely give." If you don't mean that, you are taking the name of God in vain. You can do it with profanity. You can do it by frivolity. You can do it through hypocrisy.

But in the negative, there is a positive. When we learn to take His name in victory, we'll certainly be afraid to take His name in vanity. Colossians 3:17 says, And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. That's taking His name in victory.
